Prayer Psalm

Psalm 65:1-4

Praise awaits you, our God, in Zion; to you our vows will be fulfilled. You who answer prayer, to you all people will come. When we were overwhelmed by sins, you forgave our transgressions. Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts! We are filled with the good things of your house, of your holy temple.

Praying in Times of Disaster

October 15, 2017

“Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me, for in you my soul takes refuge. I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings until the disaster has passed. I cry out to God Most High, to God, who fulfills his purposes for me” (Psalm 57:1-2).

Recently our nation has experienced many natural disasters and a terrible mass shooting. To assist your praying, please consider these thoughts:

- † Pray for hurting families and friends who awoke to news that a loved one was gone. Pray that they might know and experience God’s mercy, comfort, strength, and sustenance in their every hurt, every pain, every thought, and every emotion (Psalm 34:18).
- † Pray for those who are injured—that God might use His common grace in doctors, nurses, emergency rooms, and hospital beds to bring about their healing (Psalm 6:2).
- † Pray for justice. Pray for justice for anyone and everyone who played any part in these evil events, and for grace and wisdom in our civil government for executing justice (Proverbs 21:15; Romans 13:1-7).
- † Pray for mercy. Plainly put, in the city of Las Vegas and all across our country, we desperately need the mercy of God. Let’s all plead for it (Luke 18:9-14).
- † Pray for the churches in the affected areas, that they might indeed hold onto and hold out the hope of Christ in the midst of despair (Romans 15:13).
- † Pray for people who don’t know Christ. Pray that more and more people in a world of sin, suffering, evil, and death would know the peace, hope, love, and security that are found in Christ alone (Luke 19:10).
- † Pray for perspective. Events like these remind us that every one of our lives is a mist—here for a moment and gone tomorrow (James 4:14). We all stand on the porch of eternity, so let’s pray that today we might live for what’s going to matter forever.
- † Pray for repentance. The sight of sin and evil in the world around us should not just provoke us to look at the horror of sin and evil in others, but to turn from the horror of sin and evil in each of our own hearts (2 Peter 3:9).
- † Pray for the coming of Christ. One day there will be a new heaven and a new earth where everything will be safe. Let’s pray and plead for the coming of that day (Revelation 22:20).
